SHORSETOWN DEPARTERS CROSEN

The Philodemic Debating Society of Georgetown College last night hel-preliminaries for the Hamilton exten-pore debats. The priss debate for the Hamilton medal founded by George E

DENIES INJUNCTION

new secret plan, the plaintiff had made it public. The court inits opinion sus-stained fully the position of the Com-munty Savings and Loan Company and its directors, and this company can now go on unhindered and unhampered by the suit of the plaintiff. The plan, in brief, is that the borrower executes note. with two endorsers, for amount of loan desired and at the same for an amount equal to the loan. He is paid by the company the amount of the loan, less 6 per cent interest, and undertakes to pay for the stock in weekly installments. When the stock is fully paid for by these loats!

paid is equal to the loan and the loan can be cancelled with the total amount can be cancelled with the total amount paid on the stock. If, however, the borrower desires to make a new loan, no personal indorsement is then necessary and his certificate of stock is converted into a paid up certificate. He uses this as collateral for the new loan and proceeds in the same way, by weekly installments, to pay it.

MUST FACE MURDER CHARGE.

harles Etchison Will Be Sent

Minneapolis.

Charles D. Etchison, 33, arrested o row. A representative of the authori-ties of the city is expected here to-

Price had sued the city for damages

MERBE SO! MEBBE SO!

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 2.—The Aero Clubs of Michigan have planned an unique demonstration on American preparedness. They propose to employ an aviator to shell the city with fake bombs bearing hese words:.

"This might have been a real bo was made at that time.

paid for by these installments the

More Active Work in Designing Municipalities Urged at Convention.

TWELVE MEN CHOSEN

Speakers from Big Cities Give IIlustrated Lectures on Efforts at Civic Betterment.

From criticism of plans for government and public buildings the American Insti-tute of Architects, in convention at the Corcoran Art Gallery, turned its atten-tion to town planning and the election of twelve fellows and one honorary mem-ber at the meetings held resterday after-eon and evening.

Delegates from the city planning cor missions of progressive cities and towns all over the country told of the work be-ing done in mapping out municipalities. Accompanying the talks of a dozen speakers from New York, Kansas City, Cleve-land, Minneapolis, Syracuse, Detroit, and other cities were lantern slides showing the work done. Besides the out-of-town R. Clipston Sturgis, who presided; Col. William H. Harts, secretary of fine arts at the Corcoran, and Richard B. Watrous, secretary of the American Civic

Suggestions recommending the bringing town planning education, an endeavor to induce architects to take a more active part in both national and local town ing work, and the conducting o an active town planning and housing section in the Journal of the Institute, were a part of the report of George B. Ford, chairman of the committee on

Twelve fellows nominated by the jury of fellows were elected by ballot at the afternoon meeting. They were: Donn Barber, of New York City; C. L. Borie. New York: George F. A. Brueggeman, of St. Louis; Eleazer B. Homer, of Providence: Warren Powers Laird, of Phila-delphia; Guy Lowell, of Boston: Frank B. Meade, of Cincinnati: George S. Mills. Toledo: Charles H. Prindeville, Prederick A. Russell, of Pitts-d W. H. Schuchart, of Mil-Howard Crosby Butler was Fourth Little Prince of Japan. Tokyo, Dec. 2.—Empress Sadako gave birth to a son today. All Japan is celebrating the event. This is the four child born to the royal couple, all boys.

An Improved Quinine, Does Not Counce fervousness Nor Ringing in the Hend. The happy combination of laxatives in LAXA-TIVE BROMO QUININE makes the Quinine in his form have a far better effect than the ordi-nary Quinine, and it can be taken by any one rithout affecting the brail. Remember to call or the full name. Look for signature of E. W. BROVE. 28.

Day Until After Christmas, We Offer Unusually Interesting Values.

85c Millinery Velvet. 18-inch pure-silk-face Paon Velvet, for millinery and dress trimming, in every wanted light and dark color. A ard Limit, 3 yards to a buyer, 8th Street Annex.

50c "Iwanta" Rompers. Children's Iwanta Rompers, of Galatea, chambray, and kiddic cloth, in solid colors, also striped effects: made in diaper and bloomer styles; sizes 1 39¢ Limit, 2 to a buyer. Third Floor.

18c Tea Aprons. Tea Aprons, of tine qual awn, with tie. These aprons : laintily embroidered; regular values, 2 for 25c, or 10¢ Limit, 3 to a buyer. Third Floor.

50c Bungalow Aprons. Limit, I to a buyer. Third Floor

A Thousand Stenographers

Perfect Match Multigraph Letters

PERFECT LETTER CO.

Strictly Pure

Fruit and Sugar

AT Xander's WILL GIVE ORGAN RECITAL

Prof. Wolle, Conductor of Festiva

Renders. Program Tonight.

Prof. Frederick Wolle, conductor of the Bach festivals at Bethlehem. Pa., will give an organ recital tonight at 8 o'clock in the Church of the Epiphany. G street northwest, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets northwest.

The program to be given follows: A Fugue from the Art of Fugue (transcribed by J. F. W.), (Bach); four old Christmas hymnis: (a) "A Rose Breaks Forth in Bloom (Brahms), (b) "From Highest Heaven to Ear I Come" (Bach), (c) "How Shall I Fitty Met Thee?" (Bach), (d) "In Thee Is Gladness" (Bach), (d) "In Thee Is Gladness" (Bach), (d) "Bastoral Symphony from "The Messiah" (Handel); (b) Pastoral Sonats, third movement (based on the "The Messiah" (Handel); (b) Pastoral Sonata, third movement (based on the eighth Psalm tone), (Rheinberger); "Minuet" (Sheliey); "Scherzo from the Second Organ (Symphony (Widor); "The Little Posthorn Ahr" (Bach); "March From Hercules" (Handel); "Melody From Lanier's Flute" (Sidney Lanier); "Chromatic Fantasia" (Thiele).

SCHOOL-TEACHERS PLAN TO FORM LABOR UNION

Meeting to Be Held Tuesday by Committee in Charge-Social Features Attractive.

The 1,300 teachers in the public school of Washington are being asked this week whether they favor their formation into a social and labor union. A com mittee of teachers headed by Miss Heler Gordon, of the Wilson Normal School is festering the movement and will hold for the organization is for social purposes and that a club house might be established. Secondary reasons are for the advancement and protection of the members, as provided by a labor union.

The organization might work for a standardization of salaries, changes in standardization of saintres, changes the method of promotion, and for the establishment of a pension fund for aged teachers, but the details of the organization's policy have yet to be worked out.

Both principals and teachers are being asked for opinions on the proposal and it is hoped that a meeting for or-ganization purposes will be possible by January. The date of the meeting will be decided Tuesday.

Assisting Miss Gordon in developing the plan are Miss Kate Bucknan, East-ern; Miss Della Clark, domestic science; Miss A. M. Clayton, Arthur; Miss Suste P. Craighill, Grant: Miss Elsie Hill, Central; Miss Grace M. Johnson, Busine Miss Katherine Lowry, Hyde; Miss M.
B. Merrill, Western; Miss Susanne
Moore, Thompson; Miss Pauline Mueden,
Madison; Miss Marguerite B. Neale, drawing; W. G. Phillip, manual training; Miss Bernice Randall, music; Miss M. D. Reed, Ketcham: Miss Eisle Saunders, physical training: Miss Mary P. Shipman, McKinley: Miss Clara Stutz, Monroe: Miss Laura G. Wessells, Van Ness: Miss Roberta T. Wilson, domes art: Miss Bertha A. Yoder, Edmonds

DANIELS WILL ADDRESS HAMLINE CONGREGATION

Naval Secretary on Tonight's Program-Spiritual Culture Night Observed Last Evening.

Spiritual culture night was observer ast evening at Hamline M. E. Church Ninth and P streets northwest, where celebration of the semi-centennial of the establishment of the church is in pro-Prayer was offered by Rev. Edward Parks, D. D., treasurer of Howard University, and the sermon was preached by Rev. Lucien Clark, D. D., pastor of the church from 1901 to 1906. Rev. Dr. Luci-us C. Clark, the present pastor, presided. Mrs. B. H. Smart sang, and an organ recital was given by Dr. H. W. Free-

Fraternal night will be celebrated this evening. Secretary of the Navy Daniels will be the the principal speaker. Among other speakers will be Rev. W. R. Wedder spoon, D. D., pastor of Foundry M. E. Iam Gillette's revival of "secret service of Church, and Rev. Charence A. Vincent, D. D., president of the Pastors' Federation. James Walter Humphrey will sing. Rev. Franklin Hamilton, D. D., chancellor of American University, will war time has lost none of its fascina-night. The celebration will be brought to a close on Sunday. There will be three services, at 11. 3, and 8 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Edgar Blake, of Chicago, secretary of the Board of Sunday Schools, will be the speaker at all three services. A Sunday school mass meeting will be held in the afternoon, when Rev. Dr. Rev. Dr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT GIVES ADVICE

Advises Every One, Suffering As He Was, to Take Dreco.

disorders and rheumatism, is that of Mr. Homer A. Hurd, of 2119 Dartmouth Ave., Bessemer, Ala., who is superintend-

Mr. Hurd had this to say concerning his experience with Dreco: "For a num-ber of years I have been a sufferer from chronic Kidney trouble. Had terrible pains in my back and limbs, a dull alug-gish feeling possessed me, and at times would become very diszy. I was in-tensely nervous at times and had con-stipation almost continually. In fact was almost a wreck and could not do very almost a wreck and could not do very much work.

"No kinds of medicine," continued Mr. Hurd, "seemed to do me any good, and I was going from bad to worse.

"Reading so much in the papers about the wonderful benefits being derived from the new remedy, DRECO, I though there surely must be something in it so decided to try it. After taking two bottles I am able to do a reasonable day's cided to try it. After taking two bot-ties I am able to do a reasonable day's work, and intend to keep up the treat-ment. My kidney trouble has almost disappeared, my digestion and appetite is good, am no longer troubled with con-stipation and have no pains at all. "I am growing stronger daily, rest well at nights, and feel altogether like a difnot praise DRECO too highly, and il sufferers from kidney trouble on, constipation and rheumatis DRECO is sold in Washington in

British Losses in War Now About 600,000, Says Premier

By SIDNEY B. CAVE.

London, Dec. 2.-British losses in the war up to November 9 totaled 510,230 in killed, wounded and missing. This figure is given by Premier Asquith today in a written reply to a parliamentary question. Losses suffered by England in November are unofficially estimated to have raised the total to nearly 600,000.

The premier gave the military casualties on the various fronts as fol-

In France: Killed or died of wounds-Officers, 4,620; men, 69,272-Wounded-Officers, $754; men, 240,283. Missing-Officers, 1,584; men, Mediterranean front (Dardanelles : Killed-Officers, 1,504; men, 21.530. Wounded-Officers, 2,860; men, 70,148. Missing-Officers, 356; men, 10,211. Other theaters: Killed-Officers, 227; men, 2,052 Wounded-Officers, 337; men 5,587. Missing-Officers, 76; men, 322. Losses in the naval and marine forces in all fields were as follows: Killed-Officers, 589; men, 9,928. Wounded-Officers, 161; men, 1,120. Missing-Officers, 52; men, 310.

Women in the Front Rank of Work That is Making the Big United States

Of the 12,000 conspicuous positions, largely of an administrative character, listed in the 1915-16 educational directory just issued by the Interior Department through its Bureau of Education, 2,500 are held by women There are women who are college presidents. State superintendents of public instruction, county superintendents, directors of industrial training, heads of department of education in colleges and universities, directors of schools for af-flicted and exceptional children, and Twenty-four of the 622 colleges and uni- are wor versities listed in the directory are pre-sided over by women. Seventy institutions for the blind are listed in the directory. Of these 15 are directed by women. Of the 75 State schools for the deaf, 10 are under the leadership of women; and of the 22 pri-vate institutions of the same character. 16 have women superintendents. Of the 31 private institutions for the feeble-minded, 39 are under supervision of

The government Bureau of Education itself exemplifiles the call for women in executive educational positions; In of the 22 bureau officials listed in the directory

"AD" VIGILANCE MEN WILL ORGANIZE SOON

Enlarged Committee Will Meet December 10 to Guard Public from "Fakers."

The proposed enlarged advertising vigi-ance committee of the Retail Merchants' Association will be formally organize eeting to be held Friday night, Decmber 10, according to a decision reached yesterday afternoon at the Raleigh at a conference between Joseph Berberich, chairman of the vigilance committee; Edward P. Coliaday, president of the Pederation of Citisens' Associations; and Charles J. Columbus, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association. Pursuing the instructions of the Re-tail Merchants' Association at its last presting. Chairman Barbaich today with hairman of the vigilance committee association inviting them to the confer-ence, with a view of having each citi-zens' association represented on the ad-vertising vigilance committee of the or-

The Retail Merchants' Association desires that the Washington public be thoroughly represented in this supervision of advertising and that every effort be made to expedite the work of organization. President Colladay expressed himself as greatly interested in the movement and said he felt sure that the citizens' associations generally will be glad to acquiesce in the request of the merchants' association. The matter will be brought formally to the attention of the federation at its meeting tomorrow night.

NATIONAL.

Pilliam Gillette Revives "Secret Service."

iendid reception accorded Will-D. D., pastor of Foundry M. E. lam Gillette's revival of "Secret Service"

There will be no exercises tomorrow It will be recalled that nineteen years tempered when one passes over in his mind the list of "war" plays presented since "Secret Service" first saw the light this well-liked play, and so it cidents of this well-liked play, and so it would be an impertinence to repeat them. On the acting side, the evening was most pleasant. As Mr. Gillette displayed once more his finished performance of the hero-spy who failed in his mission because of his love for a daughter of the Confederacy, there is not much to be added to the volumes of critical comment to it. Edwin Mordant was Arrelsford, the Edwin Mordant was Arrestord, the Confederate spy, and the scene in the telegraph office between the two players just mentioned was given full value and effectiveness. Irene Haisman was a pure delight as Caroline Mitford, "from across Added to the many endorsements of Dreco, the Peerleas Preparation, which is attracting such widespread attention throughout the country, and which is accomplishing such wonderful results in the treatment of stomach, kidney, and liver disorders and rheumatism, is that of a correct portraiture of the Confederate (A. Randolph, Marion Abbett as Mar Ave., Bessemer, Ala., who is superintend-tha, and H. G. Bates as Jonas, the colored servants who play such an important School.

Mr. Hurd had this to say concerning his experience with Dreco: "Fee

England Shoots Seventh German Spy London, Dec. 2.—The seventh German spy to be shot to death in London since the war began was executed this morn-ing, it was officially announced.

B. and O. Pays $16,000 For Little Girl's Leg

New York, Dec. 2.-Katherine Wilder von Minchwitz, 12 years old, will receive $16,000 as compensation for the loss of the right leg six inches below the knee. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad today agreed to pay this sum to her and Supreme Court Justice Giegerich

Miss von Minckwitz was injured in an accident on the railroad at North Vernon, Ind., on September 6. last.

MELLEN TELLS ABOUT "EDUCATIONAL FUND

New Haven President Admits Money Was Used to Fight Grand Trunk Railway.

New York, Dec. 2.-Two $50,000 "educa tional campaigns" were incidents of the New Haven Railroad's fight against the Grand Trunk Railway in New England. Charles S. Mellen told of them today at the New Haven directors' trial. Both were directed by him, in one case as president of the Boston and Maine Railroad and in the other as president of the New

Early in 1911 the Grand Trunk was New Haven. Mellen explained that the Grand Trunk was under obligation to the Canadian government to ship its export business by way of the maritime provon. It had pro nevertheless, he said, to send this bus mass, to the rinode island seaport.

"I used $50,000 of this amount," Mellen said, "for the collection, examination, distribution and dissemination of information on the subject. It generally was published in London, in the provinces and all long the line of the Grand Trunk."

IMPRESSIVE EXERCISES HELD AT FLAG RAISING

Capitol Heights School Receives Stars and Stripes from Daughters of American Revolution.

Charles D. Etchison, 33, arrested on request of Minneapolis police, who de-clare an indictment stands against him in connection with the death in 1914 of Mrs. Mary Fridley Price, will be re-turned to Minneapolis probably tomor-Impressive flag-raising exercises were held yesterday afternon at the Capitol Heights Public School, the Stars and Stripes being presented to the institution by the Sarah Franklin Chapter of the District Daughters of the American Revolution. Following the presentation the flag was hotsted over the new school building in Central avenue, while 400. For held of the city is expected here to-ceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (court knocking out the "grandfathers clause" legislation passed in many Southern States to limit the exercise of suffrage by ignorant colored men. Republican Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme (cause" legislation passed in many Southern Se the chapter attended.

The address of welcome was by Eugene S. Burroughs, county superintendent of education. Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, chapiain-general of the National mobile.

The men explained the death, it is said, by declaring the woman fell over the by declaring the woman fell over the children while searching for a dog while they were repairing their broken automobile. ciety of the Daughters, spoke and Miss terms B. Walker sang. Mrs. Frank Fostor his wife's death, but lost, it is ter Greenawalt, State regent of the District of Columbia Daughters, urged the paying of greater respect to the flag. Others who spoke were Miss Grace M. Others who spoke were Miss Grace M. Pierce, registrar-general of the National was made at that time. Pierce, registrar-general of the National Society, D. A. R.; and Frederick Sasseer, former superintendent of education in rince George County.

added to the volumes of critical comment that have already been written in regard CONGRESSIONAL UNION GETS SENATE HEARING

Senator Charles S. Thomas, chairman of the Senate Committee on Suffrage, yesterday definitely promised Miss Anne, Martin, of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, that the Congressional Union will be given a hearing before his committee.

The Congressional Union already had obtained the promise of Representative Frank Webb, chairman of the judiciary committee of the House. Leaders of the union were elated at the pledge for the union were elated at the pledge for the Senate hearing, for which they have been working for months. The promise of Senator Thomas put at rest rumora that he had declined to hear the representatives of the Congressional Union, though he had granted a hearing to the congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage Association. "The statement that I had conferred with my colleagues and that they have decided to hear no other suffrage bodies is untrue," said Senator Thomas.

"The statement that Miss Paul called upon me and that I told her the Congressional Union would not be heard, likewise is untrue. Nothing of this sort occurred. Miss Paul has not called upon me."

Simple Laxative Compound Helps to Correct Constipation in Children.

With all children there are times when the bowels fail to act naturally and it becomes necessary for the parents to administer a remedy. Cathartics and purgatives should never be used as these agents afford only temporary relief while their violent action shocks the system unduly. Mrs. Eva F. Gaff, 517 10th St., Washington, D. C., says that her little girl, or constitue.

Morgan Back at His Desk.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years

Committee Now Favors One

Hamilton medal founded by George E. Hamilton, dean of the law department of the university, will take place Sunday evening, December 12.

Fourteen members of the society contested for places on the team. The following were chosen to debate for the Hamilton medal; Frank Anderson, '16, New York: John J. Darby, '17, District of Columbia; William J. Hughes, '17, District of Columbia; William J. Hughes, '17, District of Columbia; Norton L. Lawler, '17, Minnesota, and W. St. John Garwood, '17, Texas. The last-named was given first place. Hour of Debate for Each Senator.

DISCUSSION ACADEMIC

Southern Democrate Fear Republicans Might Pass "Force Bill" Should They Return to Power.

Democratic Senators in party conference considered plans for 'revising the rules and limiting debate, from 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon until nearly 6 o'clock, and then adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning. The outlook for a cloture resolution is not very promising.

The special cloture committee brought in an empenderal vertical considerably. IN BIG LOAN SUIT Justice McCoy Says Community Savings and Loan Company May Continue Using Present Methods. in an amendment yesterday considerabl less drastic than the proposal reported Wednesday night. This amendment would Justice Waiter I. McCoy, in District Supreme Court, yesterday refused the Industrial Finance Corporation an injunction to prevent the Community Savings and Loan Company, of 1407 New York avenue northwest, from using the so-called "Morris plan of loans and investments."

The Industrial Finance Corporation is a concern with 57,000,000 capital, which a concern with $7,000,000 capital, which to a month of debate, for the average claims to be the exclusive owner and length of a daily Senate session is six proprietor of the Morris financial system. censing institutions to use the plan. have refused to concede more than tw proprietor of the Morris financial system, licensing institutions to use the plan. The corporation licensed the Fidelity Savings Company, of this city, and when the Community Savings and Loan Company adopted the system without obtaining a license, petition for the issuance of an injunction was filed through Attorneys Hicks, Morris, Garnett & Tunstall, of New York and Norfolk, and Frank J. Hogan, of this city.

The defendant company employed Representative Hunter H. Moss to defend the suit, and a motion to dismiss the bill was made by Judge Moss, with whom was associated Robert H. McNeill, counsel for two of the directors.

The motion was based on sixteen different grounds among which was the contention that the Morris plan was not a new system of finance, as claimed by plaintiff; that in the absence of patent or copyright, a financial plan is not property; that cannot be monopolized and therefore no one can be exclusively licensed to use it: that, even if the deor copyright, a financial plan is not pro-perty; that cannot be monopolized and therefore no one can be exclusively to time and therefore no one can be exclusively licensed to use it; that, even if the defendants were using the plan of the plaintiff, which was denied, they had an absolute right under the law to do so; and that even if it were an original and

Senator Vardaman, of Mississippi, di-rected the attention of his colleagues yes terday to the fact that considerable money had been appropriated and importhe Senate under the acquiescence in the theory that the Senate is a continuing body, and the Senator from Mississipp expressed the opinion that it would be rather embarrassing at this time to as-sume that all this business had beer transacted in cheerful disregard of a set of rules such as usually govern parlie

"Force Bill" Feared.

The debate was largely academic There is much sentiment against cloture but it has not yet come to the surface The merits of the cloture resolution have not come up for discussion. The Repu not come up for discussion. The Republicans, with very few exceptions, are opposed to it, and the number of Democrats, especially in the South, who are fearful of the experiment, is increasing daily. Visions of a Republican Congress passing a Federal elections law, such as the historic "force bill," should they come into power in 1916, is very disquieting to Southern Democrats. It was reported vesterday that one Southern Senarted vesterday that one Southern Ser ported yesterday that one Southern Sena-tor was very frank in expressing himself as he left the conference.

"I am not in favor of cloture. There are too many niggers in my State."

There is being continually dangled be-fore the eyes of the Southern Senators the effigy of the Force bill, and there is some basis for their fears. Republican be passed that will guarantee to the colored voters in the Southern States the elective franchise. The anxiety of the Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme Court knocking out the "grandfathers in the Court knocking out the "grandfathers in the Court knocking out the "grandfathers in the Court knocking out the "Randfathers in the Court knocking out the "grandfathers in the Court knocking out the "Randfathers in the Court knocking out the "grandfathers in the Court knocking out the "grandfathers in the Court knocking out the "grandfathers in the Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme Court knocking out the "grandfathers in the Southern Senators has been whetted perceptibly by the opinion of the Supreme Court knocking out the "grandfathers in the Southern States the selective franchise. The anxiety of the Mass., secretary of the American Conmittee of the Mission to Lepers, told an audience of several hundred people last night at Foundry M. E. Church. Republican a Federal elections law will the flag was holsted over the new school building in Central avenue, while 400 pupils, with their parents and friends, cheered.

The presentation address was made by Mrs. James E. Mulcare, regent of the chapter. The speech of acceptance was by Miss Emma E. Walker, principal of the school. Officers and members of the chapter attended.

The address of welcome was by Euc.

Two Good Fellows Coming to Congress

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 2.—En route to Washington, Representative Doolittle, of Kansas, spent fifty-five minutes in Kansas City today to marry Miss Zula Mc-Quillan, of Strong City, Kans. The couple continued their journey East.

Parents Should Know this Splendid Remedy

tion shocks the system unduly. Mrs. Eva F. Gaff, 517 10th St., Washington, D. C., says that her little girl, Marie, had been subject to constipation, and that she found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best remedy because of its mildness, and now always keeps a bottle of it in the house. Dr. 'Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from opiates or narcotic drugs of any kind, and is an ideal remedy for children because of its mild action and positive effect. Its use tends Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin strain. Dr. to strengthen the impaired bowel action and restore normal regularity.

MARIE GAPP

It is important that parents should know of a dependable remedy with the procured at any drug store. To obtain a trial bottle, free of charge, write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, III.

Old Dutch Market

Markets sanitary equipped, radiating sunlight and cleanliness in every nook and corner, devoted to Good Things to Eat, so displayed as to be helpful, indeed, for the proper selection of your table requirements. These specials for Friday and Saturday.

SUGAR CORN Tender STRING BEANS SWEET PEAS Your Choice . . . .

Asparagus, large sq. can. . 18c | 40c Teas, all varieties, Ib. . 35c Table Prunes, 2 lbs.,....25c Pure Cocoa, lb........24c Garden Spinach, large can . 9c Coarse Hominy, 3 lbs. . . . . 10c Gran. Sagar, Ib..........6c Wagner's Cateup, bot .....8c Santes Coffee, Ib. . . . . . . 20c Patapsco Flour, 6-lb. bag . . 23c

FOR HEALTHY PORRIDGE

Rolled Oats, 3 lbs. 11c

Pride Columbia Flour,

Chum Salmon, 3 cans.....25c 12-lb. bag ........... 38c Shred Codfish, 3 pkgs..... 25c

EVAPORATED MILK Choice of Peerless, 9 Tall 99 Van Camp's or Pet U Cans & JU

Michigan Potatoes, pk....23c | Wine Sap Apples, pk....20c

Sweet, Juicy Oranges From Sunny Florida.

176 Size 150 Size Doz. 27c | Doz. 23c |

Doz. 20c

200 Size

BUTTERINE Lb.... 22C

FRESH CAUGHT FISH

The New Tile Fish 122c

Halibut Steak, Ib.....20c Potomac Black Bass, Ib......18c Salt Water Trout, Ib.... 15c Large Salt Water Oyster, qt... 25c

SEEKS TO AID LEPERS.

M. Danner Speaks at Foundry M. E. Church.

"Leprosy is only mildly contagious and

"Ninety-four per cent of the children of lepers, we have found, if removed early from their parents remain free from the disease and never get it," said "If proper attention were given to the were thoroughly isolated, leprosy would raising funds for the leper colonies and told the story of Wilbur Chapman, a White Cloud, Kansas, boy, who became so interested in the project of supporting one leper patient for a year for $25 that he bought a small pig and fed him until he sold for $25.

Huston Wills Sister $10,000. The will of the late E. S. Huston, who was attorney for the Spanish Treaty Claims Commission, leaves $10,000 to his epers throughout the world and if they were thoroughly isolated, leprosy would become extinct in a generation."

Mr. Danner described the work of First application gives relief. 50c.—Adv.

